

DON'T WANT IT – Lil Nas X

(La, la)

(La, la)

(La, la)

(La, la)

If I say so, know they gon' ride

I know G's, and you know they ain't nice

If I pop up, I'ma want it, but I get by

Tell the devil I can't have him inside (woah)

Tell the reaper he don't want it,

He don't want it

Oh, I know everything's gonna be alright

Tell the reaper he don't want it,

He don't want it

Oh, I know everything's gonna be alright

I smoked myself to sleep, I'm sad,

I think I'm feelin' lonely

Took one too many shots last night

And I spent all my money

Started thinkin' am I stupid to be funny

Over things that's been hauntin' me

All my life?

And I'm fuckin' living proof

That if you want it

You can have anything right before your eyes

I wanted fame and I wanted riches

Wanted happiness, wanted forgiveness

Started focusin' on all these riches

Crazy how this shit come to fruition

I've done things in my past I'm sorry for,

So please don't hold me

Old people in my life should know that

I am not the old me (the old me)

If I say so, know they gon' ride (gon' ride)

I know G's, and you know they ain't nice

If I pop up, I'ma want it,

But I get by (get by)

Tell the devil I can't have him inside
Tell the reaper he don't want it,
He don't want it
Oh, I know everything's gonna be alright
Tell the reaper he don't want it,
He don't want it
Oh, I know everything's gonna be alright
(Woah, oh)
(Woah, oh)
(Woah, oh)
(Woah, oh)
