

Belgium – lil peep

You don't mind and I don't mind at all

(At all)

You act kind, I don't act kind at all

I ask myself, "Why am I talkin' like this?"

Ask yourself,

"Do you deserve this treatment?"

I was out in Belgium on tour

That's the day that

I convinced myself that I was truly yours

I know that you hear me

I know that you hear me

I know that you're here, girl

I'm at the door

I know that you're here, girl

Answer the door

You don't mind and

I don't mind at all, at all

You act kind, I don't act kind at all

I

I ask myself, "Why am I talkin' like this?"

Ask yourself,

"Do you deserve this treatment?"

No one deserves this treatment

No one deserves this treatment

Ooh, you don't deserve this treatment

(You don't deserve this)

I know that you hear me

(I know that you hear me)

I know that you hear me

(I know that you hear me)

I know that you hear me, yeah

Yeah

I was out in Belgium on tour

That's the day that

I convinced myself that I was truly yours

I know that you hear me

I know that you hear me, yeah
You don't mind and I don't mind at all
You act kind, I don't act kind at all
(At all)
I ask myself, "Why am I talkin' like this?"
Ask yourself,
"Do you deserve this treatment?"
Do you deserve this treatment?
Do you deserve this treatment?
Deserve this treatment
(I know that you hear me)
I was on my own for the past two months
I haven't seen a friend's face, in too long
On my own
That's when I noticed all, all that shit
(All that shit)
All that shit that fucked me up
(That fucked me up, yeah)
You act kind, I don't act kind at all, at all
