

Littlest Things – Lily Allen

Sometimes I find myself
Sitting back and reminiscing
Especially when I have to watch
Other people kissing
And I remember when you started
Calling me your missus
All the play fighting,
All the flirtatious disses
I'd tell you sad stories about my childhood
I don't know why I trusted you,
But I knew that I could
We'd spend the whole weekend
Lying in our own dirt
I was just so happy
In your boxers and your t-shirt
Dreams, dreams
Of when we had just started things
Dreams of you and me
And it seems, it seems
That I can't shake those memories
I wonder if you have the same dreams too
The littlest things that take me there
I know it sounds lame, but it's so true
I know it's not right, but it seems unfair
That the things are reminding me of you
Sometimes I wish we could just pretend
Even if only for one weekend
So come on, tell me
Is this the end?
Drinking tea in bed, watching DVD's
When I discovered all your
Dirty grotty magazines
You take me out shopping
And all we'd buy is trainers
As if we ever needed anything to entertain us
The first time that you

Introduced me to your friends
And you could tell I was nervous,
So you held my hand
When I was feeling down,
You made that face you do
There's no one in the world
Who could replace you
Dreams, dreams
Of when we had just started things
Dreams of me and you
And it seems, it seems
That I can't shake those memories
I wonder if you feel the same way too
The littlest things that take me there
I know it sounds lame, but it's so true
I know it's not right, but it seems unfair
That the things are reminding me of you
Sometimes I wish we could just pretend
Even if only for one weekend
So come on, tell me
Is this the end?
