

World – Lindita

We're so alike, yet different
At a loss for words, stuttering
It don't make sense, what's happening?
I just don't understand
(Ah)What's this fight all for?
What's the cost of life in this world?
(Ah) Almost impossible
Is let the love unite us all
Does anybody care, I'm Weak and I'm afraid
Wondering if I will make it through this day
For the life of me I refuse to be anything but free
But I'm tired of all the battling
What's this fight all for?
What's the cost of life In this world?
All I ever really want
Is let the love unite us all
Let the love unite us all
Oh... oh...
Let the love unite us all
Oh oh Oh
Oh (What's that fight all for?)
Oh Oh (What's the cost of life In this world?)
Oh (Almost impossible)
Oh Oh (Is to let the love unite us all)
What's that fight all for?
What's the cost of life in this world?
All I ever really want
Is to let the love unite us all!
