

TIMEZONE – Måneskin

You're wearing my old clothes, but you
You wear it better
And every time I see your face
The moon should be jealous
And I keep talking to the wall
'til he's a friend of mine
I call you every hour
Just to tell you that I'm losing my mind
Now I know you're sleeping
Where I'm supposed to be in
Wish I could've stayed
Only thing that keeps us apart
Is seven thousand miles
Running like a mad dog
Only thing that keeps us apart
Is a different timezone
So fuck what I'm dreaming
This fame has no meaning
I'm coming home
Only thing that keeps us apart
Is a different timezone
Tomorrow I got another plane
I'm not gonna take it
Instead, I'm gonna fly straight to you
I paid double for the tickets
And I don't give a shit
About the contracts that I signed
And they can say whatever
We'll be making love I'm fucking you tonight
Now I know you're sleeping
Where I'm supposed to be in
Wish I could've stayed
Only thing that keeps us apart
Is seven thousand miles
Running like a mad dog
Only thing that keeps us apart

Is a different timezone
So fuck what I'm dreaming
This fame has no meaning
I'm coming home
Only thing that keeps us apart
Is a different timezone
So fuck what I'm dreaming
This fame has no meaning
I'm coming home
Only thing that keeps us apart
