

BLUE – Madison Beer

I was always blue behind the Red blood stain on my lips
You were always green with envy
Saw right through the tenderness
We were like a California sunset
Faded to die any minute
Getting rid of you might
Be the best thing I ever did
And I was seeing us in a silent movie
Taking off our gloves
Like a violent crime scene
Diamonds in the cut
always know how to fool me
Oh honey
But I know when to run, run, run
I know when to run, run, run
I know when to run, run, run
When my makeup does
When my makeup does
And I know when to run, run, run
I know when to run, run
And I know when to run, run, run
When my makeup does
When my makeup does
I was always blue behind the black mascara
That I cried
You could be as sweet as honey
But I knew the darkness in your mind
We were like a gorgeous bed of roses
Ready to die any minute
Getting rid of you might be the best thing I ever did
And I was seeing us in a silent movie
Taking off our gloves
Like a violent crime scene
Diamonds in the cut

Oh honey
But I know when to run, run, run
I know when to run, run, run
I know when to run, run, run
When my makeup does
When my makeup does
And I know when to run, run, run
I know when to run, run
And I know when to run, run, run
When my makeup does
When my makeup does
I know when to run, run, run
I know when to run, run, run
I know when to run, run
When my makeup does
When my makeup does
