

The Battle – Maia Reficco, Josefina Willa

Tell me who you think you are?

We've had enough

We've had enough

Jealousy won't get you far

So back it up

Just back it up

We saw you draw a line

We saw you walk across it

Time for you to step aside

We've had enough

We've had enough

The best will rise up to the top

You're not gonna take our spot

It's too late for this to stop

Let's settle this

(Let's settle this)

Now!

Only one can win

(Only one can win)

Second is a sin

Oh-oh-oh

We got what it takes

And we're gonna win the battle

Oh! Oh!

Ready for a fight

Ready for a fight

Your chances end tonight

Oh-oh-oh

Yeah we got what it takes

And we're gonna win the battle

We are gonna win we are gonna win

The battle

We are gonna win we are gonna win

The battle

You know we were here first

It's how to now

It's how to now
You keep steppin' on our turf
No back in down
No back in down
When the champions of sound
Will be the last one standin'
Here are boys is drown you are
We get it loud
We get it loud
The best will rise up to the top
You're not gonna take our spot
It's too late for this to stop
Let's settle this
