

Strong – Maia Reficco

Grow up hurts when you fall
Life without pain is impossible
And all of the scars and the bruises
Have their own story to tell
I've made mistakes, hurt once I love
I've given my best, wasn't good enough
It's not how many times that
I miss that matters
It's how many times I try again
So I'm gonna dig down deep
I'm gonna fall too hard
I'm gonna skin my knees
And lose heart
But I will not lose hope
If I'm knocked off my feet
'Cause when I get up, get up over and over
I'm getting strong
I'm getting strong
I'm getting strong
When I was young I felt so safe
Now here on my own there's so much to face
I've learned with every cloud to remember
That every time it rains I'm growing up
So I'm gonna dig down deep
I'm gonna fall too hard
I'm gonna skin my knees
And lose heart
But I will not lose hope
If I'm knocked off my feet
'Cause when I get up, get up over and over
I'm getting strong
I'm getting strong
Life's not all candy and roses
Good things don't come so easy
There's always something that's in the way
But on this road that I've chosen

I'm gonna choose to believe
That I get stronger with every heartbreak
I'm gonna dig down deep
I'm gonna fall too hard
I'm gonna skin my knees
And lose heart
But I will not lose hope
If I'm knocked off my feet
'Cause when I get up, get up over and over
I'm getting strong
I'm getting strong
Ooh, I'm getting strong
