

Worlds Collide – Maia Reficco

Am I the only one
That's tryin' to figure out where to belong
I'm misunderstood, misguided, miss no good
I'm feeling caught in between
Stuck with two versions of me
I'm left and I'm right
Living a double life
I don't know which wanna be
Tell me what can I do
When two worlds collide?
Do I really gotta choose
To lose one of the sides?
When I'm black and white
And so classic
Then colorful and dramatic
How do these two worlds collide?
Whoa oh, whoa oh
When worlds collide
Whoa oh, whoa oh
When worlds collide
If you could see in my heart
You'd know that it's breaking apart
Don't wanna live life
Caught in a big lie
But I just don't know how to stop
Tell me what can I do
When two worlds collide?
Do I really gotta choose
To lose one of the sides? (Whoa oh, oh-oh)
When I'm black and white
And so classic
Then colorful and dramatic
How do (Do) these two
(Two) worlds collide?
Whoa oh, whoa oh
When worlds collide

Whoa oh, whoa oh
When worlds collide
I wish I could be strong
And not hide anymore
So tell me what I can do
When two worlds collide?
Do I really gotta choose
To lose one of the sides? (Whoa oh, oh-oh)
When I'm black and white
And so classic
Then colorful and dramatic
How do these two (These two)
Worlds collide? (Oh-oh)
Whoa oh (How do?), whoa oh
When worlds collide
(How do?) Whoa oh, (These two) whoa oh
When worlds collide
Whoa oh
These worlds collide
Whoa oh
When worlds collide
Whoa oh, oh-oh
