

Thunder Rider – Majesty

Keeper of the sacred oath,
Defender of the damned
Once born as a thunder child,
Now you're a stronger man
Riding on a horse of steel up
In the hailing storm
Descendant of the universe,
The mighty lord reborn
You're a sacred warrior
Forever rule the night
Sent down from the shining stars
A lightning in the sky
Thunder rider
You are flying in the wind
Thunder rider
Bring us hope and clear our sins
You are young, you are free
You're a son of destiny
Thunder rider
We all believe
Break the chains and free the slaves, protector of the weak
Holy, holy eagle fly and tell about his deeds
Spread his spirit everywhere,
In darkness and in light
Rider, you shall heal our world
With true majestic pride
You're a sacred warrior
Forever rule the night
Sent down from the shining stars
A lightning in the sky
Thunder rider
You are flying in the wind
Thunder rider
Bring us hope and clear our sins
You are young, you are free

You're a son of destiny
Thunder rider
We all believe
Sent by the fire, blessed by the wind
Raised by the eagles, he's born to defend
Pray to the thunder...THUNDER
Hail to the thunder...THUNDER
Follow his path and you shall forever be free
You're a sacred warrior
Forever rule the night
Thunder rider
Thunder rider
Bring us hope and clear our sins
You are young, you are free
Thunder rider
We all believe
