

Hot Like Summer WAW – Margaret, Alvaro Soler

The scenery changes
The ball won't start without us
The ball won't start without us, no
Tell me, why do we need this pressure?
I'm not like the rest
No one here knows me anyway

Twilight outside, and lips on my skin
I feel it for real, don't delay it anymore
California in my lungs, because I don't have to do anything now
These moments won't come back

Tell me, that now
A Porsche Panamera is taking us somewhere
Sorry, but I'm not picking up
Stars are falling from the sky tonight
For us, from the sky, for us
Now
I know you're taking me to one of the beaches
And you're undressing me with your eyes
Stars are falling from the sky tonight
For us, from the sky, for us

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah-ah
Yeah-ah

Yeah, nunca olvidaré
When we were going around
The world, you and me
How beautiful to see
Part of your past
Even though it remained in the past
Uh, with you I open up everything
That doesn't scare me
Accelerating to the bottom

The iron is breaking
Because when you look at me
I forget everything, yeah

Tell me, that now
A Porsche Panamera is taking us somewhere
Sorry, but I'm not picking up
Stars are falling from the sky tonight
For us, from the sky, for us
Now
I know you're taking me to one of the beaches
And you're undressing me with your eyes
Stars are falling from the sky tonight
For us, from the sky, for us

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah-ah
Yeah-ah
Yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah-ah
Yeah-ah
Yeah

Don't pull up to my house
Because there are always paparazzi standing here
I'll pick you up like last time
At that restaurant
Where we started this

Tell me, that now
Stars are falling from the sky tonight
Now
And you're undressing me with your eyes
Stars are falling from the sky tonight
For us, from the sky, for us

Yeah, yeah, yeah

Yeah-ah

Yeah-ah

Yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah

Yeah-ah

Yeah-ah

Yeah
