

If I Leave – MARO

If I leave, I'll leave this song behind
Not for all but for those who'll cry
Please remember, I tried my best
But forgive me, oh there is nothing left
There is nothing left
If I leave, it's not 'cause I don't care
There's too much that I feel I couldn't bare
Please remember the times I smiled for you
But forgive me, oh there is nothing left
