

We've been loving in silence – MARO

Ten past three and I'm waking up in your arms
Skin on skin, nothing else matters
Oh, we've been here for a while
Haven't seen the sun come out, oh
We've been loving in silence
Drawing with our bodies
Oh, I feel like running again
Ooh, I wanna do it again
Yeah, I feel like running again
Ooh, I wanna do it again
Yeah
Every crooked line in your back
Feels like part of me
Your story's in my fingers,
You'll never wash away
Oh, we've found some secret smiles
Haven't heard the rain come down
Oh, we've been loving in silence
Talking with our bodies
Oh, I feel like running again
Ooh, I wanna do it again
Yeah, I feel like running again
Ooh, I wanna do it again
Yeah
I'm running again, ooh
I wanna do it again
I feel like running again
Ten past three and I'm waking up in your arms
Skin on skin, nothing else matters
