Unknown – martschin

Unknown, unknown, unknown
Unknown, unknown, unknown
Long day, wearin' me down
Heavy heart in a crowded town
Too many thoughts runnin' through my head
All I need's an open road instead
I'm drivin' into the unknown
No map, just the pulse of my soul
Headlights cuttin' through the dark
Leavin' it all just to find a spark
Unknown, unknown, unknown
Unknown, unknown, unknown
Road ahead with no end in sight
Caught in the pull of the endless night
Letting go, don't need control
In the dark, I'm finding my soul
Stars above as the city fades
Chasin' night with my own parade
Breathin' deep, feel the rush inside
Lost in the dark, nowhere to hide
I'm drivin' into the unknown
No map, just the pulse of my soul
Headlights cuttin' through the dark
Leavin' it all just to find a spark
Unknown, unknown, unknown
Unknown, unknown, unknown
I'm drivin' into the unknown
No map, just the pulse of my soul
Headlights cuttin' through the dark
Leavin' it all just to find a spark
Unknown, unknown, unknown
Unknown, unknown, unknown
