

Ain't much loving – Me and that man

Mother, I'm leaving
Mother, I'm gone
It seems like in this world
There ain't much loving anymore
Mama, I'm leaving
Mama, I'm gone
I ain't looking for redemption
Like a dog without a bone
There ain't much loving anymore
There ain't much loving anymore
There ain't much loving anymore
There ain't much loving anymore
Mother, I'm leaving
Mama, I'm gone
I must find a place to rest my spirit
Where I can sit and mourn
Mama, I'm leaving
Mama, I'm gone
Nothing can fix my broken soul
So I hit an empty road
There ain't much loving anymore
There ain't much loving anymore
There ain't much loving anymore
There ain't much loving anymore
There ain't much loving anymore
There ain't much loving anymore
There ain't much loving anymore
There ain't much loving anymore
There ain't much loving anymore
Father, I'm leaving
Father, I'm gone
There's a billion years I've traveled
And I finally found my home
I'm gonna sing out my darkness
Sing about my woe
I will spread the gospel
There ain't much loving anymore

There ain't much loving anymore
There ain't much loving anymore
There ain't much loving anymore
There ain't much loving anymore
