Cry Baby – Melanie Martinez

You seem to replace
Your brain with your heart
You take things so hard
And then you fall apart

You try to explain
But before you can start
Those cry baby tears
Come out of the dark

Someone's turning the handle
To that faucet in your eyes
They're pouring out
Where everyone can see them

Your heart's too big for your body
It's where your feelings hide
They're pouring out
Where everyone can see

They call you cry baby
Cry baby
But you don't fucking care
Cry baby, cry baby
So you laugh through your tears

Cry baby, cry baby
Cause you don't fucking care
Tears fall to the ground
You just let them drown

You're all on your own and
You lost all your friends
You told yourself that
It's not you, it's them

You're one of a kind
And no one understands
But those cry baby tears
Keep coming back again

Something's turning the handle
To that faucet in your eyes
They're pouring out

Your heart's too big for your body
It's where your feelings hide
They're pouring out
Where everyone can see

They call you cry baby
Cry baby
But you don't fucking care
Cry baby, cry baby
So you laugh through your tears

Cry baby, cry baby
Cause you don't fucking care

I look at you and
I see myself
And I know you better
Than anyone else

I have the same faucet
In my eyes
So your tears
Are mine

They call me cry baby
Cry baby
But I don't fucking care
Cry baby, cry baby

So I laugh through my tears

Cry baby, cry baby
Cause I don't fucking care
I just let them drown
