

Womb – Melanie Martinez

A seed in mother
And I chose that space for me
Little does she know it's free, ooh, yeah
I'm undercover, as they wait for joy, I cry
On a mission, learn and die, ooh, yeah
And I know my brother
He'll make the journey later on Conversations in the cosmos, yeah
And it's all a game now
But once I'm in the world, it's lost
Memories gone to evolve, ooh, yeah
Merging cells and flesh
I'm baby building all my insides, right to see the future
Right before my eyes, I know
What's coming, what's coming
In the womb, get me out now,
I'm safe and I'm sound
Cut the cord, I'm coming
Out the blue, belly water too, hot and cold
Through with it, oh, now she's birthing
Feeling alive,
The closer that I get to my life
I'm pushing out the center, the core
I'm swimming through the flower
no more, no more
All of the planning, yet I still feel unprepared Kicking, screaming 'cause I'm scared, ooh, yeah
And I know she suffers
Contractions of hell and death
Eyes are bloody screaming out, ooh, yeah
Merging spirit, mind, and body
Building all my insides,
Right to see the future

Right before my eyes, I know
What's coming, what's coming
In the womb, get me out now,
I'm safe and I'm sound
Cut the cord, I'm coming
Out the blue, belly water too, hot and cold
Through with it, oh, now she's birthing
Feeling alive,
The closer that I get to my life
I'm pushing out the center, the core
I'm swimming through the flower
No more, no more
