

Heavy is the weight – Memphis May Fire

One step forward and two steps back
Nothing good ever comes easy
I gave it all and got a knife in my back
Should have known the ones
I trusted would leave me
They only see what they wanna see
Heavy is the weight that I hold
The weight that I hold
I carry it cause it's all that I know
This is all that I know
Pressure on me
Pressure to be
True to who I am
Heavy is the weight
The weight that I hold
One life, one chance, it's all I have
Wouldn't matter if the whole world hated me
So I move on, forget the past
And let 'em go back to thinkin' they made me
They only see what they want to see
Heavy is the weight that I hold
The weight that I hold
I carry it
Cause it's all that I know
This is all that I know
Pressure on me
Pressure to be
True to who I am
Heavy is the weight
The weight that I hold
Heavy is the weight
I don't wanna wait
For them all to be good
When I wanna be great
Yeah, I know about pressure
Yeah, I know about stressin'

Worried if I'll lose everything invested
And I know about workin'
When I'm hardly rested
Like, am I in tune with what I'm destined for?
Been carrying this weight for so long
Didn't even notice that my back was so strong
I can probably put a boat on it
With no problem
The show must go on
The weight that I hold
I carry it cause it's all that I know
True to who I am
Heavy is the weight
Heavy is the weight that I hold
(The weight that I hold)
The weight that I hold
I carry it
Cause it's all that I know
(All that I know)
This is all that I know
Pressure to be
True to who I am
Heavy is the weight (The weight)
Heavy is the weight
The weight that I hold
