Chicago – Michael Jackson

I met her on my way to Chicago
Where she was all alone and so was I
So I asked her for her name
She smiled and looked at me
I was surprised to see
That a woman like that was really into me
She said she didn’t have no man
Raised the kids the very best she can (She was lovin' me)
She told me she was all alone
Said, "I don't," she didn't have no phone (She was wantin'
She said just to give her a page
Fifty nine was the code she gave (She was lovin' me)
She'd lied to you, lied to me
'Cause she was lovin' me, lovin' me, yeah
I never would've thought she was livin' like that
Her words seemed so sincere
When I held her near,
she would tell me how she feels
It felt so real to me
This girl, she had to be
An angel sent from heaven just for me
She said she didn’t have no man
Raised the kids the very best she can Look, she's lovin' m
She told me she was all alone
Said, "I don't," she didn't have no phone (She was lovin'
She said just to give her a page
Fifty nine was the code she gave
She'd lied to you, lied to me
'Cause she was lovin' me, lovin' me, yeah (Look who's lovi
She tried to live a double life
Lovin' me while she was still your wife (She was wantin' m
She thought that lovin' me was cool
With you at work and the kids at school (She was lovin' me
She said that it would never end
Or tried to keep me any way she can (She was wantin' me)

She'd lied to you, lied to me
'Cause she got a family, family, yeah
Whoa, no
Alright
Oh (I’m in love, love)
I didn't know she was already spoken for
'Cause I'm not that kind of man
Swear that I would've never looked her way
Now I feel so much shame
And all things have to change
You should know that I'm holdin' her to blame
She said she didn’t have no man
Raised the kids the very best she can (Holdin' her to blam
She told me she was all alone
Said, "I don't," she didn't have no phone (Holdin' her to
