

Beautiful Madness – Michael Patrick Kelly

There's no line on the horizon
You're like a lion and a lamb
Is it a tragedy or triumph?
You're so good, it's sick
Why did you swallow down my poison?
Now I'm your number one fan
Naked on a desert island, yeah
You're so good, it's sick
Now it feels like beautiful madness,
Feels like never enough
Don't you know that you are the baddest?
My love, my love, my love
Yeah, it feels like beautiful madness
I just can't get enough
Don't you know that you're leaving
Me breathless?
My love, my love, my love
Ooh, what a beautiful madness
Ooh, what a beautiful madness
Now we don't care 'bout the cash flow
We got another kinda gold, we keep
It hot, no tabasco
No sleep, no sleep
Plenty sharks in the ocean
But we still dive deep
Come and take a sip of the potion
No sleep, no sleep
Now it feels like beautiful madness
Feels like never enough
Don't you know that you are the baddest?
My love, my love, my love
Yeah, it feels like beautiful madness
I just can't get enough
Don't you know that you're leaving
Me breathless?
My love, my love, my love

Ooh, what a beautiful madness
Ooh, what a beautiful madness
You're my love, my love, my love
My love, my love, my love
You're my love, my love, my love
You're my love, my love, my love
My love, my love, my love
You're my love, my love, my love
And now it feels like beautiful madness
Feels like never enough
Don't you know that you are the baddest?
My love, my love, my love
Yeah, it feels like beautiful madness
I just can't get enough
Don't you know that you're leaving
Me breathless?
My love, my love, my love
Ooh, what a beautiful madness
Ooh, what a beautiful madness
