

In 100 Years – Modern Talking

Outside the gates of Heaven
Oh, there lives a unicorn
I close my eyes to seven
Oh, this world is not my home
A broken heart in danger
And a pillow filled with tears
Oh, can you see the strangers
In the pain and in the fears?
Can you feel my heart ?
Baby don't give up
Can you feel my love tonight ?

In 100 years love is illegal
In 100 years from now
In 100 years love is illegal
In this lonely, heartbreak town
In 100 years love is illegal
All your dreams will die
In 100 years love is illegal
And your hope will not survive

LOVE
Love is illegal, my heart
Can you hear my heart is beating?
LOVE
Love is illegal, my heart
Can you hear my heart is beating?

You're walking through a fire
Computers everywhere
Oh, you're a shotgun rider
Controllers here and there
And you read old love letters
Drawning in the sea
Oh baby it doesn't matter
Oh you've lost all what you feel

Can you feel my heart?
Baby don't give up
Can you feel my love tonight?

In 100 years love is illegal
In 100 years from now
In 100 years love is illegal
In this lonely, heartbreak town
In 100 years love is illegal
All your dreams will die
In 100 years love is illegal
And your hope will not survive

LOVE

Love is illegal, my heart
Can you hear my heart is beating?
LOVE
Love is illegal, my heart
Can you hear my heart is beating?

LOVE

Love is illegal, my heart
Can you hear my heart is beating?
LOVE
Love is illegal, my heart
Can you hear my heart is beating?
