

Hollow points – motionless in white

Yeeaaahhh
Put a bullet in my head
Blow it out with your hollow points*
Nothing that you say is any help
It's just a fucking noise
Get down upon your knees
Thank the lord for your blessed life
Looking down your nose feeling save
A pretentious vice
Ego toxicity
Brand your faith a currency
But when it doesn't serve your purpose
You just bite your tounge
You'll never see it for the evil
That it has become
You'll never see it for the evil
Manipulate
Preach and lie
Fire hollow points
They puncture between my eyes
Kill the fucking noise
Nail your hands against your heart
Say a prayer for the wicked souls
Armagedon's here
Crack a smile
Cuz we dug our holes
Fevered duplicity
Manifests complicity
Manipulate
Preach and lie
Fire hollow points
They puncture between my eyes
Kill the fucking noise
This pride's not a virtue
We all die the same
A fiction woven through time

That faith means divine
You'll never see it for the evil
That it's now become
And when it strikes you just bite your tongue
Surrender
The splendor
The true God screams offender
So biased
Your highness
Superior yet blind to bliss
Manipulate
Fire hollow points
They puncture between my eyes
The fiction you live in
That your faith means divine
The ignorance fuels the irony in
The way you exist
A wolf in sheep's skin
Holier than thou yet
Soaked in your sin
Of misrepresenting
All you claim to hold dear
That it's now become
And by the knife when it strike
I'll cut out your tongue
