

In Your Embrace (feat Agnieszka Antos) – NUSH3N

Hold me tight,
Like the world's about to break
In your arms,
I find my shelter, my escape
Heartbeats race, mesmerizing view
Your words, my smile,
A love that feels so true
When you touch me, sparks begin to fly
With you I reach the highest sky
You're my joy, my guiding light
Love so pure, it feels so right
In your embrace, I find my home
You're the one, the one I've known
In your eyes, I see a spark
Igniting flames deep in my heart
In your embrace I wanna stay
You're the one, who lightes my way
You're my star, shining in the night
Our love burns bright,
With every touch, ignites
Your voice is a melody soothing my soul
In your eyes,
I see a love that makes me whole
When you touch me, sparks begin to fly
With you I reach the highest sky
You're my joy, my guiding light
Love so pure, it feels so right
In your embrace, I find my home
You're the one, the one I've known
In your eyes, I see a spark
Igniting flames deep in my heart
In your embrace I wanna stay
You're the one, who lightes my way
Hold me close, our love won't fade away
With you, forever, I'll always stay

You're my joy, my guiding light
Love so pure, it feels so right
In your embrace, I find my home
You're the one, the one I've known
In your eyes, I see a spark
Igniting flames deep in my heart
In your embrace I wanna stay
You're the one, who lightes my way
Hold me tight,
Like the world's about to break
