That Would be Enough – Original Broadway Cast of Hamilton

Look around, look around

At how lucky we are

To be alive right now

Look around, look around

How long have you known?

A month or so

Eliza, you should have told me

I wrote to the General a month ago

I begged him to send you home

You should have told me

I'm not sorry

I knew you'd fight

Until the war was won

But you deserve a chance to meet your son

Look around, look around

At how lucky we are

To be alive right now

Will you relish being a poor man's wife

Unable to provide for your life?

I relish being your wife

Look around, look around

Look at where you are

Look at where you started

The fact that you're alive is a miracle

Just stay alive,

That would be enough

And if this child

Shares a fraction of your smile

Or a fragment of your mind, look out world

That would be enough

I don't pretend to know

The challenges you're facing

The worlds you keep erasing and creating in your mind

But I'm not afraid

I know who I married

So long as you come home at the end of the day
That would be enough
We don't need a legacy
We don't need money
If I could grant you peace of mind
If you could let me inside your heart
Oh, let me be a part of the narrative
In the story they will write someday
Let this moment be the first chapter
Where you decide to stay
And I could be enough
And we could be enough
