Out For Love [Wersja z Teledysku] – Hazbin Hotel, Daphne Rubin-Vega

I see you're driven by your detestation Your every step is stoked with animus You need a different type of motivation Or there's no way that you can handle this I know you're thirstin' for vengeance, Vaggie You're out for blood But you'll only stand a chance If you're out for love Out for love, love Think of who you care about Protect 'em and be Out for love, love You're gonna fight without gloves Long as you're out for love Fuel yourself with the fear of losin' That somebody who's your reason to live Harness your heart And you can't help choosin' To fight with all you can give I know you're thirstin' for vengeance, Vaggie You're out for blood But you'll only stand a chance If you're out for love Out for love, love Think of who you care about Protect 'em and be Out for love, love You're gonna fight without gloves

And when that push comes to shove

Yeah, you just might rise above

Long as you're out for love
