

Blood of Another – Paradise Lost

You'll see the blood, blood of another
You'll see the blood
As we roll in it together
You'll see the blood, blood of another
You'll see the blood
As we roll in it together tonight
What unruly life is like
What is fabled wisdom like?
This indulgent grace is spinning around
And leaving all behind
Knowledge Limits you besides
Claming you're so sure by vibes
In this frozen climate the temperature
Should bring you down to rights
Should bring you down to rights
You'll see the blood, blood of another
You'll see the blood
As we roll in it together
You'll see the blood, blood of another
You'll see the blood
As we roll in it together tonight
Beauty, purity inside
Twisted madness filth and vice
Death is not selective
The darker shroud will fall on all despite Recklessness, the fault in mind
Anger, Laughter can't provide
Try to turn a blind eye
The wasting pain one trip you cannot buy
You'll see the blood, blood of another
You'll see the blood
As we roll in it together
You'll see the blood, blood of another
You'll see the blood
As we roll in it together
You'll see the blood, blood of another

You'll see the blood
As we roll in it together
You'll see the blood, blood of another
You'll see the blood
As we roll in it together tonight
You'll see the blood, blood of another
You'll see the blood
As we roll in it together
You'll see the blood, blood of another
You'll see the blood
As we roll in it together
You'll see the blood, blood of another
You'll see the blood
As we roll in it together
You'll see the blood, blood of another
You'll see the blood
As we roll in it together tonight
