

Nothing Sacred – Paradise Lost

My life is not too whole
It's understanding why
I take when I owe
I can't explain
But it seems like it's going wrong again
And it feels like it's going wrong again
My life is oh so cold
Misunderstanding now
It means that i'm slow
Its seems obscene
But you steel and you're on the run again
And you steal and you're on the run again
Without the strength to hold
Onto what's sinking
I'll pretend it's all show
I can reveal
But it seems like it's going wrong again
And it feels like it's going wrong again
But it seems like it's going wrong again
And it feels like it's going wrong again
