

Relentless – Pentagram

Now I don my electric axe
I'm gonna lay you on your back
All psyched and ready to go
Take you to hell and won't say hello
Walk with me through the black house
What a wild trip You're such a louse
Feel my power as it prevails
As you listen to sinister tales
Why do you hold your head so low?
Are you afraid of your mystical soul?
Feel the metal and feel it deep
Out through the walls flows true belief
When in doubt, what do you do?
You know how to see it through
Never in your life will He forgive
The wasting of your soul that He once gave
Oh no!
Do you know my name? I doubt if you do
But you'd be surprised if I told it to you
My looks are deceiving, I'm not what I seem
For I've got more power than you may believe
Oh, take me
And its so relentless oh yeah
So relentless
