

The Different Story – Peter Schilling

I'm so lonely on my way
Waiting for a better day
Only one thing left behind
A world of lust and crime
There's no place for me to hide
I don't know what's wrong or right
Pain and sorrow in my mind
A world of lust and crime
See the wise man in the graveyard
Screaming play the different story
Lonely people in his old heart
Know the answer just for everything
Love turns a friendly card
With the different story it'll open your
Heart forever
Love is a dangerous game
You don't have to worry 'cause it's easy
To play
There's a chance for me and you
Making all our dreams come true
Trust enough and you won't find
A world of lust and crime
See the wise man in the graveyard
Screaming play the different story
Lonely people in his old heart
Know the answer just for everything
Love turns a friendly card
With the different story it'll open your
Heart forever
Love is a dangerous game
You don't have to worry 'cause it's easy
To play
See the wise man in the graveyard
Screaming play the different story
Lonely people in his old heart
Know the light of hope and glory
