

Cut Me Open – Phedora

Cut me open, look inside
How do you like me bleeding?
Knife you left deep in my back
Means nothing if I'm breathing
Walk me to the edge,
I'll show you how the fallen rise
I'm dancing on my grave,
Your shame will take me to the skies
Cut me open,
I don't need my heart
Cut me open,
Hurt me just enough
Till there's
Nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing!
There's nothing left for You
Cut me open
Your damn love is still my favorite lie
How come that my pain and guilt
Are just your guilty pleasures?
If You're hungry for my sins,
I'm starving for your failures
Walking on this path
That my feet never wished to walk
I was the silent one,
Now I'm the hunger of this world
Cut me open,
I don't need my heart
Cut me open,
Hurt me just enough
Till there's
Nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing!
There's nothing left for you
Cut me open
Your damn love is still my favorite lie
(instrumental)
Hold back all your songs

And break all of your promises
And don't right all your wrongs,
Not gonna need them where I head
Cut me open,
I don't need my heart
Cut me open,
Hurt me just enough
Till there's
Nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing!
Cut me open
Your damn love is still my favorite lie
