

Take what you want – Post Malone ft. Ozzy Osbourne

I feel you crumble in my arms
Down to your heart of stone
You bled me dry just like the tears
You never show
Why don't you take what you want from me?
Take what you need from me
Take what you want and go
Why don't you take what you want from me?
Take what you need from me
Take what you want and go
I never needed anything from you
And all I ever asked was for the truth
You showed your tongue
And it was forked in two
Your venom was lethal I almost believed you
Yeah, you preyed on my every mistake
Waited on me to break, held me under hopin'
I would drown
Like a plague, I was wasting away
Tryna find my way out, find my way out
And it finally
Came the day
I start giving my heart away
For Heaven's sakes,
My bones will break
But you never own my soul, no
I feel you crumble in my arms
Down to your heart of stone
You bled me dry just like the tears
You never show
Why don't you take what you want from me?
Take what you need from me
Take what you want and go
Why don't you take what you want from me?
Take what you need from me

Take what you want and go
I took them stones you threw,
Made chains for the crew
I brought up 10 hoes, this coupe
Only made for two
They all ran through it,
It ain't nothing left to do
I need some more reasons
To live out this evening
I've been sippin' forever
And just taking whatever
Hoping, thinking whenever
You'll be back around
Let's go our ways, whichever
You say how is however long
'Cause you know I'll never be alone
Love (love, yeah)
Shorty gon' back
Need it on sight
Crack it all back
Give her that pipe
All of my gang
Shawty went bad
I feel you crumble in my arms
Down to your heart of stone
You bled me dry just like the tears
You never show
Why don't you take what you want from me
Take what you need from me
Take what you want and go
Why don't you take what you want from me
Take what you need from me
Take what you want and go
Take it all away
Why don't you
(take what you want, take what you need)
Take what you need from me, yeah
(Take what you want) why don't you
(take what you need?)
(What you need, yeah)
