

Timekiller – Project Pitchfork

Go away leave me alone
I feel your presence in my mind
The time seems to stop
I set you free
You calm my mind
You calm my mind
Make my dreams come true - baby
Every time it seems to me
That fiction and reality
Melt together for eternity
Liquid words dropping down the stairs
Filling the emptiness with sense
You and me on the floor
Floating on our sensibility
You need a timekiller
And you don't understand
I am like quicksand
Lick it from my hand
I am your timekiller
I let your mind expand
I am like quicksand
Lick it from my hand
Tick tock tick tock
Madness comes tonight
What's reality compared to me
I rest on the bed
And I'm sure I slowly get mad
I'm in a state of mind
Which makes me blind
For the fact that I'm a man
I'm here to stay forever
But not today
You need a timekiller
And you don't understand
I am like quicksand
Lick it from my hand

I am your timekiller
I let your mind expand
I am like quicksand
Lick it from my hand
You need a timekiller
And you don't understand
I am like quicksand
Lick it from my hand
I am your timekiller
I let your mind expand
I am like quicksand
Lick it from my hand
In my heart is no place for you
And in my mind is no space for you
The exit already melted away
I am like quicksand
Lick it from my hand
I am your timekiller
I am like quicksand
Lick it from my hand
You need a timekiller
I am like quicksand
Lick it from my hand
I am your timekiller
I let your mind expand
I am like quicksand
Lick it from my hand
