

Hold me for a while – Rednex

Hold, hold me for a while,
I know this won't last forever,
So hold, hold me tonight,
Before the morning takes you away

Hold, hold me for a while,
I know this won't last forever,
So hold, hold me tonight,
Before the morning takes you away

What's that sparkle in your eyes?
Is it tears that I see?
Oh tomorrow you are gone
So tomorrow I'm alone
Short moments of time
We have left to share our love

Hold, hold me for a while,
I know this won't last forever,
So hold, hold me tonight,
Before the morning takes you away

We're in each others arms,
Soon we're miles apart,
Can you imagine how I'll miss,
Your touch and your kiss?
Short moments of time,
We have left to share our love

Hold, hold me for a while,
I know this won't last forever,
So hold, hold me tonight,
Before the morning takes you away

Hold, hold me now,
From dusk all night to dawn

Save, save me now,
A short moment of time

Hold, hold me for a while,
I know this won't last forever,
So hold, hold me tonight,
Before the morning takes you away
