

Fallen – Repentance

Pride, feeling your pride...
Tainted emotions are staining your mind
As they crave from inside
Feeding your fame by killing my name
Breaking my days by your fabulous game
And I sigh...
And I say...
Tomorrow will bring you down
Tomorrow will break your crown
Tomorrow will kill your day
To wine your pride away
Tomorrow will bring you down
Tomorrow will break your crown
Tomorrow will kill your day
To wine your pride away
Down, down on your knees
You're fading away, you pray for repay,
But your anguish to stay
No longer a queen you're trying to redeem
But fire is lost and your soul is to dim
And I sigh...
And I say...
Tomorrow will bring you down
Tomorrow will break your crown
Tomorrow will kill your day
To wine your pride away
Tomorrow will bring you down
Tomorrow will break your crown
Tomorrow will kill your day
To wine your pride away
Tomorrow will bring you down
Tomorrow will break your crown
Tomorrow will kill your day
To wine your pride away
Tomorrow will bring you down
Tomorrow will break your crown

Tomorrow will kill your day
To wine your pride away
