

Forgiveness – Robin Foster (feat Dave Pen)

I remember the first time
It made me feel like
I was leaving
To find light
To begin
I had to forget
And keep moving
Let the days fade
My emotions slip
Into nothing they slip
Into nothing they slip
Into nothing
And teach us to pray forgiveness
But I won't swallow what they feed us
No more, no more
I carry this rock
This all dead way like a noose
Around my broken neck
All for down to the crowd
This would be my lonely end
My soul time, my time
I won't hide away, won't run away,
Won't hide away, won't run away
And teach us to pray forgiveness
But I won't swallow what they feed us
No more, no more,
