

Disco Lady – Rocky M.

She moves on the people steps
Like so she floats away around the floor
Guess I'm having hope
To be the one she'll choose
Tonight that one could be me
'Cause she gets it on down
Like no other around
Disco Lady could it be that, maybe?
You're an angel sent to spread the news
How to dance with the blues
Disco Lady you make dancers crazy
Everybody tries the best to do
What comes naturally to you
Her eyes dances for man to man
She never stops the rythm she began
She moves 'till she's facing me
She knocks her head
The black flows down to my feet
Then the music plays loud as we dance
For the crowd
Disco Lady could it be that, maybe?
You're an angel sent to spread the news
How to dance with the blues
Disco Lady you make dancers crazy
Everybody tries the best to do what comes
Naturally to you
Disco Lady you make dancers crazy
Everybody tries the best to do what comes
Naturally to you
Disco Lady you make dancers crazy
Everybody tries the best to do what comes
Naturally to you
