

When Spirits Are Calling My Name – Roger Pontare

I am caught in a trap
There is no turning back
I'm finally facin' the fear
The sky is on fire
And up with the flames
My hope and my dreams disappear
So bring me the power
I'll be the king of the land and the seas
Show me the way to go
Let me fight with my body and soul
Let me be the native son
With freedom in my heart
Life will never be the same
When spirits are calling my name
My name
Let me out of the darkness
The shadow of pain
And I'm keepin' my promise to you
My people, my spirit
The home of my heart
You're with me wherever I go
So bring me the power
I'll be the king of the land and the seas
I've got a way to go
Let me fight with my body and soul
Let me be the native son with freedom in my heart
Life will never be the same
When spirits are calling my name
My name
So bring me the power
I'll be the king of the land and the seas
I've got a way to go
Let me fight with my body and soul
Let me be the native son with freedom in my home
Life will never be the same

When spirits are calling my name

Spirits are calling my name
