When Spirits Are Calling My Name – Roger Pontare

I am caught in a trap There is no turning back I'm finally facin' the fear The sky is on fire And up with the flames My hope and my dreams disappear So bring me the power I'll be the king of the land and the seas Show me the way to go Let me fight with my body and soul Let me be the native son With freedom in my heart Life will never be the same WWhen spirits are calling my name My name Let me out of the darkness The shadow of pain And I'm keepin' my promise to you My people, my spirit The home of my heart You're with me wherever I go So bring me the power I'll be the king of the land and the seas I've got a way to go Let me fight with my body and soul Let me be the native son with freedom in my heart Life will never be the same When spirits are calling my name My name So bring me the power I'll be the king of the land and the seas I've got a way to go Let me fight with my body and soul Let me be the native son with freedom in my home Life will never be the same
