Overpowered - Róisín Murphy

When I think that I'm over you

I'm overpowered

Your data my data

The chromosomes match

Exact as in matter

A matter of fact

These amaranth feelings

A cognitive state

Need the love object

To reciprocate

When I think that I'm over you

I'm overpowered

It's long overdue

I'm overpowered

When I think that I'm over you

I'm overpowered

It's long overdue

I'm overpowered

As science struggles on to try to explain

Oxy-toxin's flowing ever into my brain

As science struggles on to try to explain

Oxy-toxin's flowing ever into my brain

A chemical reason

If reason's your game

A chemical needing

Is there in the brain

With preprogrammed meanings

Like a little more pep

Alien feelings

We have to accept

When I think that I'm over you

I'm overpowered

It's long overdue

I'm overpowered

When I think that I'm over you

I'm overpowered

It's long overdue
I'm overpowered
As science struggles on to try to explain
Oxy-toxin's flowing ever into my brain
As science struggles on to try to explain
Oxy-toxin's flowing ever into my brain
