

Hellish man – Rowana Jake-Dot

I was always asking why
I was always crying loud
Why me? Why now?
Why he
My blood dripping down,
On my face and my back
His smile creeping out
Do you like it so much?
They are everywhere
Nicest greatest helpful there
The true face is hidden there
They are devils somewhere
It's a devil in disguise
He's the same blood as mine
It's a devil in disguise
Father, bloody, nightmare
He was a holy man
Preachin teaching everywhere
He was a hellish man
Hitting beating me there
It's a devil in disguise
He's the same blood as mine
It's a devil in disguise
Father, bloody, nightmare
But now, but here
All the hidden thing
All the secrets dark
Gonna be said out loud
It's a devil in disguise
He's the same blood as mine
It's a devil in disguise
Father, bloody, nightmare
He was a holy man
Preachin teaching everywhere
He was a hellish man
Hitting beating me there

It's a devil in disguise
He's the same blood as mine
It's a devil in disguise
Father, bloody, nightmare
It's a devil in disguise
He's the same blood as mine
It's a devil in disguise
Father, bloody, nightmare
