

MVP – Roxie

Boy you wish you were my type
Ain't afraid of no goodbyes no
Would have took you for a ride
Put your feeling in the ice
I don't care about the price
But you said you'd never let me go
If I want it boy I'll let you know
Body language paralyzed can't you see it in my eyes
Don't you know they never lie?
Oooo
You only at a place in my summer
I am only gonna fall for another
Just want you to know

MVP I got you feeling more than just alright though
I've been out here running game
Why you've been going psycho
Baby I ain't worried about losing all no I don't
I'm still on my high though
Mmm

MVP I got you feeling more than just alright though
I've been out here running game
Why you've been going psycho
Baby I ain't worried about losing all no, I don't
I'm still on my high though
Mmm

I am out playing in the field
Yeah
I don't need something real
Mmm
But I always keep it real for myself for myself
You already know the deal yeah
So call me crazy call me Heartless

I ain't got to be somebody else somebody else
I know plenty of guys who do this
I'm not tryna be somebody else somebody else uaa

Oooo
You only at a place in my summer
I am only gonna fall for another
Just want you to know

MVP I got you feeling more than just alright though
I've been out here running game
Why you've been going psycho
Baby I ain't worried about losing all no, I don't
I'm still on my high though

MVP I got you feeling more than just alright though
I've been out here running game
Why you've been going psycho
Baby I ain't worried about losing all no, I don't
I'm still on my high though

MVP, yeah
MVP, yeah
I am so free
I am so feeling me
I am so feeling me
MVP, yeah
MVP, yeah
I am so free, yeah
I am so feeling me
I am so feeling me
MVP
