

40:1 – Sabaton

Baptised in fire

40:1

So silent before the storm, awaiting command

A few has been chosen to stand

As one outnumbered by far

The orders from high command:

Fight back, hold your ground!

In early September it came

A war unknown to the world

No army may enter that land

That is protected by Polish hand

Unless you are 40 to 1

Your force will soon be undone

UNDONE!

Baptised in fire

40:1

Spirit of Spartans

Death and glory

Soldiers of Poland

Second to none

Wrath of the Wehrmacht brought to a halt

The 8th of September it starts

The rage of the Reich

A barrage of mortars and guns

Stand fast, the bunkers will hold

The captain has pledged his life

"I'll face my fate here!"

The sound of artillery strike

So fierce the thunder of guns

So come bring on all that you've got

Come hell, come high water, never stop
Unless you are 40 to 1
Your lives will soon be undone

UNDONE!

Spirit of Spartans
Death and glory
Soldiers of Poland
Second to none
Wrath of the Wehrmacht brought to a halt

Always remember, a fallen soldier
Always remember, fathers and sons at war
Always remember, a fallen soldier
Always remember, fathers and sons at war
Always remember, a fallen soldier
Always remember, buried in history

No army may enter that land
That is protected by Polish hand
Unless you are 40 to 1
Your force will soon be undone

UNDONE!
