40:1 – Sabaton

Baptised in fire 40:1

So silent before the storm, awaiting command A few has been chosen to stand As one outnumbered by far The orders from high command: Fight back, hold your ground! In early September it came A war unknown to the world

No army may enter that land That is protected by Polish hand Unless you are 40 to 1 Your force will soon be undone

UNDONE!

Baptised in fire
40:1
Spirit of Spartans
Death and glory
Soldiers of Poland
Second to none
Wrath of the Wehrmacht brought to a halt

The 8th of September it starts
The rage of the Reich
A barrage of mortars and guns
Stand fast, the bunkers will hold
The captain has pledged his life
"I'll face my fate here!"
The sound of artillery strike
So fierce the thunder of guns

So come bring on all that you've got

Come hell, come high water, never stop Unless you are 40 to 1 Your lives will soon be undone

UNDONE!

Always remember, a fallen soldier Always remember, fathers and sons at war Always remember, a fallen soldier Always remember, fathers and sons at war Always remember, a fallen soldier Always remember, buried in history

No army may enter that land That is protected by Polish hand Unless you are 40 to 1 Your force will soon be undone
