

Running – Sandro

I don't feel like talking
Let me sit here alone
The phone's calling
I can't pick it up
I'm tired of running from these demons (demons)
I'm tired of running from these demons
I can't see anymore
I can't see anymore
But I keep on running
I keep on running
I keep on running away
Now I keep on running
I keep on running
I don't wanna fall again
Drowning out my memories
From the night before
Door's knocking
Just leave me alone
I'm tired of running from these demons
Oh, I'm tired of running from these demons
I can't see anymore
I can't see anymore
But I keep on running
I keep on running
I keep on running away
Now I keep on running
I keep on running
I don't wanna fall again
Looking, losing
My energy, tripping
Anybody tow me back home
Standing naked
Putting on fake smiles
I don't wanna be sad anymore
Anymore, anymore, anymore, anymore yeah
I don't wanna fall again

(Keep on running)

I don't wanna fall

I don't wanna fall

I don't wanna fall again

I'm not gonna fall again
