

Living to love You – Sarah Connor

Ooh, yeah
All we had was just one summer
Two lovers strolling in the park
But like they say the world keeps turning
As the leaves were falling
we should fall apart
Now I'm waiting for the winter
To build my castle out of ice
And deep inside this massive building
There's a crystal lake
Of all the tears I cried
Baby for all my life
Don't you know that it's true
I'm Living to Love You
So baby don't think twice
If you feel what I feel
Trust your heart, and do what I do
'Cause I'm Living to Love You
Mm, I'm Living to Love You
When you're gone, it's not forever
'Cause you're remaining in my heart, mm
So tell me why I feel this aching, oh
Every time I think of you when we're apart
Baby for all my life
Don't you know that it's true
I'm Living to Love You
So baby don't think twice
If you feel what I feel
Trust your heart, and do what I do
I'm Living to Love You
I admit that from time to time
I'm feeling insecure
And think I'm gonna lose my mind
Don't let it show no
Oh, no, no, no, no, no
Mm, I don't think I'll ever understand

That our loving should never have a happy end
So I'm really gonna try my best
To let you know
To let you know
I've been knowin' it's true
I'm Living to Love You
So baby don't think twice
If you feel what I feel
Trust your heart, do what I do
When the final day comes
I know the angels
They will see my smile
And if they wanna know the reason
I will tell them why
Baby for all my life
Oh yes, I'm Living to Love You
