

Wonders in a mad world – Sebastian Krenz

I knew it the first time
Looked back in your eyes
I wrote your name about
A hundred different times
You're always told to keep
To keep your chin held high
Guys aren't meant to cry
(but) I did it with a smile
You show me the wonders in a mad world
Wherever you go, where, wherever you go
I'll always make sure that you won't get hurt
Wherever you go, where, wherever you go
Not now, not now, not now
The times keep moving passed
And the flowers grow
I can't wait till I
Sit in the first row
Till the sun comes up
And the moon comes down
I'll be right here across the sky
You show me the wonders in a mad world
Wherever you go, where wherever you go
I'll always make sure that you won't get hurt
Wherever you go, where wherever you go
It's impossible to ever let you go
(But) Even in my absence I will let you know
You show me the wonders in a mad world
Wherever you go, where wherever you go
I'll always make sure that you won't get hurt
Wherever you go, where wherever you go
Not now, not now, not now
Not now, not now, not now
