

Give me your heart tonight – Shakin' Stevens

Oh tonight - I'm walking the streets again
Runnin' away from all of my teasin' friends
Oh tonight - the stars are in darkened skies
They don't hold all the love
I can see in your lonely eyes

Cause I'm not waiting for a secret
I don't want to hear a lie
Don't want the promise of tomorrow
Give me your heart tonight

Too young - too young to start settling down
I'm getting too old
Too old to keep running around
Oh your love is something I don't wanna miss
End up alone and livin' on a one night kiss

Cause I'm not crying without reason
I'm not asking what is right
Just like the changin' of the season
Give me your heart tonight

Cause I'm not waiting for a secret
I don't want to hear a lie
Don't want the promise of tomorrow
Give me your heart tonight

I'm not crying without reason
I'm not asking what is right
Just like the changin' of the season
Give me your heart tonight

I'm not crying without reason
I'm not asking what is right
Just like the changin' of the season
Give me your heart tonight
