

Because of you – Skunk Anansie

Because of you
The tears dead in my eyes
They freeze until I'm blind
The eyes a gift from you
Because of you
The scratches on my face
Will never be erased
By someone else's warmth
Because of you
The boys will always say
"The bitch is back again
So none of you are safe"
Because of you
The winter feeds my heart
While summer blows and burns
My disappearing youth
My love is gone
Never feel again
Because of love
I feel nothing
Because of love
I feel nothing
Because of you
I'll never bleed again
The agony of pain
Will never bruise or start
Because of you
Our passion tends to led
With all my lovers fed
With pieces from my heart
My love is done
Never feel again
Because of love
I feel nothing
Because of love
I feel nothing

Because of you
Because of you
Because of love
I feel nothing
Because of love
I feel nothing
