

December – Small Jam

Oh I remember
We had a conversation
So sweet and so tender
For the first time we were
Staring at your eyes
You smiled and said hello
I smiled and I replied
I dont wanna, talk no more
Honey you beautiful
Its so nice to finally meet you
But the day has come and now
Things are done
But still I cried, cried
I dont wanna, talk no more
I dont wanna, dream no more
All I want right now is
My baby by my side
As I lay reminising
I recalled, the line of faith
The first text you sent me
You first call and
Your careless smile
For it was true
You was complete
They were saying
And you moved on
If only you could feel
The salt in my skin
Thats the bitterness
On my taste
You would know
You would know
I still care
Yes I do
But the day has come and now
Things are done

But still I cried, cried
I dont wanna, talk no more
I dont wanna, dream no more
All I want right now is
My baby by my side
My side
Girl I remember December
Down the side u me meet
Me love you tender-ness
So sweet nice bola
Thats why me maelia my girl
Me cant believe my eyes
It hurts so bad
Babe girl me love ya
Call it love at first sight
Thats why me ya go say
Honey you're so beautiful (yeah)
Well its so nice to meet you
But the day has come and now
Things are done
My baby by my side
My baby by my side
