Rennen - SOHN

Oh Father, release me

My bones feel like stone

And I know when the game is up

It's up

It's obvious (Obvious)

The universe (Universe)

Is trying to tell me to let go

(Trying to tell me to let go)

I'm sorry but (Sorry but)

I've given up (Given up)

I've given up (Given up)

I've given up (Given up)

And I feel some relief now I know

And I love you but I really have to go

My fate (My fate)

My fate don't mean a thing (My fate)

My fate (My fate)

My fate don't mean a thing (My fate, say it)

Oh, mother, believe me

I know what this means

And it's easy

I see no other way

It's obvious (Obvious)

The universe (Universe)

Is trying tell me to let go

(Trying tell me to let go)

I'm sorry but (Sorry but)

I've given up (Given up)

I've given up (Given up)

I've given up (Given up)

And I feel some relief now I know

And I love you but I really have to go

My fate (My fate)

My fate don't mean a thing (My fate)

My fate (My fate)

My fate don't mean a thing (My fate, say it)
